PRESENT

2017 FAFSA SCHOLARSHIP COMPETITION (FREE APPLICATION FOR FEDERAL STUDENT AID)

The Education Credit Union is sponsoring two ($500) scholarships to area high schools with the highest percentage of seniors completing the FAFSA.

- We'll be counting FAFSAs between October 1, 2016 – March 15, 2017.
- Each student from the winning district/high school who submits the FAFSA will be entered into the "opportunity to win" at their school.
- See your high school counselor for more information.

Contact Karla Weatherly, P-16 Specialist, if you have any questions or if you need more information. 806-677-5077 or karla.weatherly@esc16.net

YOUR SENIORS ARE ALREADY WINNERS!

Area high school seniors who take their "Student Aid Report" and their School ID to the Venom Box Office will receive a free ticket to that night's game.

THANKS VENOM!

Visit www.govenom.com for a schedule and more information.

Seniors- You can now apply for FAFSA for 2017-18 school year.

To help the process move a little more smoothly, you will need the following information:

1. Your Social Security number
 2. Your birthdate
 3. your Mom and Dad's (or legal guardian) Social Security number
 4. Your Mom and Dad's (or legal guardian) birthdate
 5. A parent/guardian email address
 6. A personal email address for you
 7. The address EXACTLY as it appears on your parents' (and yours if applicable) 2015 tax return. We will be using the IRS retrieval tool so you should NOT have to bring a copy of the actual return.
